Dear [REDACTED] 25X1A9a

I have just addressed a cablegram to you relative to the procurement of certain equipment by the individual listed in the first paragraph of your letter dated 9 May 1947.

25X1A8a

To further clarify this matter, this equipment is not for [REDACTED] funds will not be expended for this purpose. The use of the title of Supply Officer, [REDACTED] is a desirable expedient in this case which I am sure you understand. The actual financial transactions will be handled here in Washington.

This cable was sent to you for fear that you might inadvertently learn of this transaction and you would have every right to question it immediately. In so doing, it might receive undesirable and unnecessary publicity.

Sincerely yours,

25X1A9a

[REDACTED]

Acting Chief, [REDACTED] 25X1A8a
